Chapter 1 by Unusual_Abby

It was a foggy night. Abigail was going into the forest. She only had one purpose. To kill herself. She has been planning this moment for years. The one place no one would care if she died there. The suicide Forest is where she was going. Legend has it that everyone would go into this forest and kill themselves. And Abigail would be part of it. She stopped walking. She looked at the gun in her hand. She had one bullet, one purpose, one monster inside of her. She didn't want to hurt anyone else so this is what she had to do.

Chapter 2 by SaintSayaka

The moon watched her silently. It would bear witness to the primal event that was about to occur.

See, the truth of the Suicide Forest was a little, how should we say, "skewed". Only locals knew of the truth of the place, but they had been paid off by years of tradition and the mayor's money to keep their mouths shut.

The beast watched Abigail raise the gun to her head, and licked its lips. She would never have seen the like before.
